What's Happening This November

TREASURES IN THE ATTIC

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 6TH AT 2:30PM IN PRESERVATION HALL

We all have a memory, photo or item that holds special meaning to us. Perhaps your treasure is something you've moved from place to place or something that brings you back to a special time. Maybe it's a photo that makes you smile or a memory of an adventure of days past. Today you will have the chance to share your treasure and listen to others as they share as well. Not sure if you'd like to share? You're welcome to come listen and learn about each other!

LEARNING WITH LITTLES AT 11AM

NOVEMBER 7TH AND 14TH ON THE BACK PATIO

We have 2 more mornings with our new little friends from Wild Wonder Preschool. Come join them on the back patio, rain or shine, for an opportunity to learn alongside these 3 and 4 year olds. Stations for you to participate in with them will be set up out back. Perhaps you'll be able to teach them something as we spend time together. Seating provided. Come enjoy the wonder that these preschool students are so ready to share with us!

REMEMBRANCE DAY SOCIAL

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9TH AT 2:30PM

IN THE CAFE D'MONDE

Come together and look back and remember all those whose service impacted our world for peace. You'll have a chance to share, listen and spend time with one another. Snacks provided.

CHRISTMAS MARKET AT ABBOTSFORD TRADEX ($9.00)

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 16TH, 1:45PM

You will discover new gift ideas, original art, crafts, woodwork, ceramics, specialty foods, home decor, clothing, furniture, floral designs, jewellery, candles, soaps, toys, and much more. Our visitors and vendors agree: during the past decade the show was visited by over 150,000 visitors, shopping from over 2,500 vendors, making us the most significant Christmas Show in the Lower Mainland. Check out what's in store this year!
